The flame and my fate

Summary

Flash fic. As Rei meditates in front of the sacred flame at Hikawa Shrine, she glimpses her fate.

- A translation of La flamme et mon destin by MiaQc

At Hikawa Shrine, I meditate in front of the sacred flame. Although Chaos is defeated and peace is assured on Earth and on the future Crystal Tokyo, I still remain on my guard. I have the feeling that evil will always return. Suddenly, I have a vision. I see my fate.

In Crystal Tokyo, peace will be short-lived.

Chaos will return, more powerful than ever.

New enemies will appear and threaten humanity.

Sailor Mercury, Jupiter, Venus and I will fight them to protect Neo-Queen Serenity, King Endymion and their daughter.

After many battles, the Sailor Guardians fall.

Our lives are in danger.

Sailor Chibi Moon and the Sailor Quartet take over while Mercury, Jupiter, Venus and I recover from our injuries.

But our lives are still in danger.

As soon as the vision stops, I scream. My grandfather, worried about me, enters the large room.

"I... I'm fine, Grandpa."

It was a lie. I don't want to alarm him. I don't want him to worry about me. For a fate that I can't prevent from happening.
